

University of Oregon Neighborhood Parking Overview

PARKING: All teams and spectators are advised that parking availability surrounding the University of Oregon is restrictive. Street parking is limited to 2-hour parking zones and meters. Unauthorized vehicles in University parking lots will be issued citations and towed. Both the City of Eugene and the University of Oregon will be strictly enforcing parking. See map below for specifics. For additional information, visit –

- Meter Parking and Pay-To-Park Lots – The university has meters located around campus at $2 per hour. Meters accept VISA, MasterCard, quarters and payment through www.parkmobile.com.

In pay to park lots 17, 29A, East 15th Ave, and Lot 15, hourly parking is available at $2 per hour. U.S. Bills, VISA and MasterCard accepted. Exact change required. Visitor permits are also valid in Pay-to-Park lots (Lot 15 excluded).

Unless lot is signed “AT ALL TIMES” – lots are free on the weekends.

- Visitor Permit Parking

Visitor permits are valid in campus surface lots and are sold at the Transportation Services for $10 per day. Overnight visitor permits, valid in designated overnight lots, are also available for purchase for $15 per 24-hour period. Visitor permits are good for one day only. If you are parking for multiple days, you must purchase a permit for each day you are going to park. Larger events or those who need a permit for a longer duration should contact Transportation Services for more information.

- City of Eugene Parking Meters (Campus Area Daily Parking Rates) – City meters operation from 7am – 6pm, Monday through Saturday. All meters are free after 6pm and on Sundays.
